

Oregon Constitution requires similar proceedings.

The stale claims set out in the Complaint concern alleged conduct far in the past by the Respondent well beyond any statute of limitation or repose that allows them. That no question of current conduct, character, attribute, or fitness of the Respondent is claimed by disciplinary counsel. There is not now and has never been a complaint from a client or attorney for which I have been disciplined in forty two (42) years. You disbar me and in a resident lawyers case with over 117 complaints from clients and other attorneys he is suspended. (See Knappenberger, Supreme Court No. 549996 (2005)).

That it is well recognized that the rules and discipline to which lawyers are subjected is not prosecuted for punishment, or even deterrent. Instead, it is to determine the present character and fitness of the lawyer involved to be in the best interests of the public and the bar to continue practicing law (see letters attached). No allegations to that effect have been made in the Complaint. There is no "substantial question" raised as to the current "honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness" of the Respondent in the Complaint. The Complaint does not state a claim upon which disbarment or discipline should be based.

G. "SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS" DISCIPLINE-APPLICATION:

What good is an ethical rule without a moral application? The core of ethical morality is choosing to do the right thing by acting responsibly and applying the rule and the spirit of the law under constitutional principles. Fair rules require fair and equal enforcement.

The first moral principal is the Golden Rule. It is a basic principle of exchange reciprocity - "do unto others, as you would have them do unto you." In essence, the Golden Rule tells us to ask ourselves, how would I feel if this were done unto me? If you could look at the facts in this matter with that question in mind the unfairness and denial of constitutional rights in the stacked multiple reciprocal reciprocity and its difference from standard disciplinary procedures highlights the abuses inherent within its application in this case.

In Matthew 7:1-5 Jesus tells us to be cautious not to cross the line between legitimate enforcement of rules of law and failure to do so. In the Jewish Misnah custom and law ask that we "don not judge your fellow until you are in his position." When you judge man weigh the scales in his favor." (Aboth 1:6, 2:5). I look at that as an ancient rule of law to presume innocence until all the facts are known and full and fair hearing is held. Not the conclusive presumptions and changes of burdens of proof inherent in the limited exceptional case of inequality and prohibited rights in the mandatory reciprocal discipline "special" procedure. When the underlying facts are not known, but punishment is simply multiplied by several summary conclusive rushes to judgment, in the shadow of doubt of a void judgment without knowing clear details of the underlying facts of conduct, the categorical imperative of the unconditional command of reciprocal discipline punishment without any exceptions creates a blind side to facts and circumstances and multiple punishments without fairness and justice. This is especially true when stacking a series of presumptive summary conclusive orders with never "a day in court," as we know it, a "special procedure contrary to other lawyers subject to disciplinary procedures.

In philosophy and theology, there is a well known fallacy of logic call "post hoc ergo propter hoc" literally, "after this, therefore because of this." That is, the reciprocal disciplinary fallacy under the facts of this case. The false choice of reciprocal mandatory conclusiveness that earlier conduct is all bad does not depict the subtleties and nuances of the underlying facts which can be brought out only through full and fair hearing with the traditional rights given to others.

H. BACKGROUND FACTS CRIMINAL CASE - NOT FULLY LITIGATED:

This court has evidence before it that the Texas, Iowa and the United States Court did not all have! In particular, the "smoking gun" which establishes the criminal defense attorney's knowledge of the dishonorably discharged felon juror occurred not subsequent to the guilty verdict as the criminal court record and appellate decision understood, but the third day of an expected six (6) week trial is set out.⁶ Exhibit 8 of the Answer to Notice is the Appendix to the Petition For Writ of Certiorari to the U.S. Supreme Court in December, 2001.

That is ten (10) years after the questionable conviction. The bill and statement of services of the expert witness attending trial everyday in order to testify for the defense.⁷ That statement at pages 59 - 61 was obtained through discovery in the civil suit against the criminal defense counsel after appeals and disciplinary proceedings in Texas and Iowa. It verifies that in mid-trial the information on the Head note 16 p 7 US v. Lloyd E. Humphreys "subsequent to the entry of verdict Humphreys discovered that the juror (felon) rights had not been restored." That assumption on appeal was wrong. Defense counsel found out during trial.

He was not called as a defense witness along with nineteen (19) others on the witness list filed with the court because defense counsel was reserving them for a full defense on the second trial he expected because of the felon juror discovered after three (3) days of trial. (See Exhibits 11, 13, 15 of Answer for evidence of innocence by witnesses not called by defense.)

dishonorably discharged-felon juror was obtained. (Attached hereto). It was then defense counsel cut short the defense of Humphreys and used the trial for discovery allowing evidence in without objection and resting after one and a half weeks of trial instead of the scheduled six (6) weeks without calling as witnesses the retained, trial attending expert, the office manager, and others that could have exonerated Humphreys.⁸ It was not a fully litigated case in the "due course of law." Does not this shortfall by ineffective defense counsel deny due process and obstruct justice?!

It has been recognized in Oregon that ineffective assistance of counsel to the prejudice of a defendant should be considered in reviewing the due process and due course of law. (See E.G. Trujill v. Maas, 312 OR 431, 435, Williamson v. Schiedle, 2004 WL 26 770030 OR, 11/24/04.

I. BACKGROUND FACTS - GENERAL:

Thank you for the opportunity to practice law here in Oregon. I have been a member of the Oregon Bar since 1980. I was first admitted to practice in 1962 - forty two (42) years ago. I received a regular Army commission as a distinguished military graduate after graduating from law school with honors and was the first and only⁹ "Judge Advocate Lawyer with the United States Army Vietnam. When John F. Kennedy was assassinated. I was officer of the guard and was warned of an attack on our flag. My squad and I with guns at ready were

8

-Exhibit 7 attached to Answer contains the undisputed facts p 8-12 and argument on defense counsel's ineffectiveness-attached in Appendix.

In 1965, when I volunteered from Paris, France to go to Nam there were only 35,000 troops for the first six (6) months as they built up to 350,000 I was alone in country to help maintain the rule of law. My cancers are considered to have been caused by exposure to Agent Orange.

fully prepared to die in defense of our flag. During the decades of legal practice that followed I worked hard to maintain the rule of law that we had fought for. Later, I attended seminary at Southern Methodist University and was ordained to the sacred priesthood in 1998, a year after reinstatement here. I was called to be a Senior Pastor at a small traditional Episcopal church. I preached and led by example to maintain the rules of morality of God's laws.

Between 1992 and 2000 I contracted three different forms of cancer - carcinoma (four (4) times), melanoma, and cancer of the base of tongue. This was the time I received word I could apply for reinstatement in Oregon and did so. The tongue cancer metastasized to the lymph nodes of the neck and I was forced to give up the church after three (3) years. After radiation that destroyed the cancer, my thyroid and pituitary glands in my neck I was to have surgery to remove the jugular vein and left side of my neck. An hour before surgery it was decided to waive the surgery. I came to Oregon the "promised land" I had loved, to recuperate and help people maintain their legal rights and religion. My pain allowed me to better appreciate others, making me a better lawyer. I now ask you to allow me the same constitutional rights of any resident lawyer with a trial panel and appropriate procedure.

I bring this background to your attention so that you understand that the rule of the law and ethical morality is of the utmost importance to me and I simply ask for you to extend to me what I have fought in war and court for over four (4) decades for our country.

III. CONCLUSION

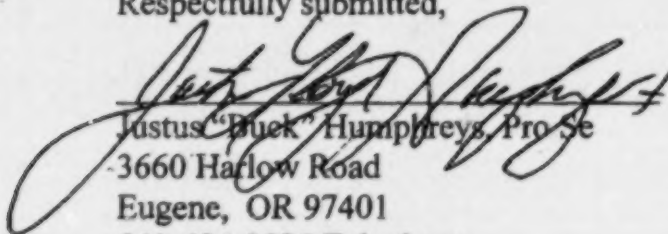

That for the reasons above and those set out in the Answer to Notice, Humphreys petitions the court for mercy to reconsider it's March 8, 2005, Order, and prays this Honorable

Court will:

- 1) dismiss the proceeding, or
- 2) reduce the sanction, or suspend until reinstated in Texas, or at a minimum grant the same rights and privileges that a resident lawyer would have to include hearing, appointment of a trial panel, and/or disciplinary board evidentiary hearing in accord with the "due course of law," and;
- 3) such other procedure as may be fair and just under the circumstances.

DATED March 28, 2005.

OREGON BAR RULES OF PROCEDURE

Rule 1.3 Nature Of Proceedings.

Contested admission, disciplinary, and reinstatement proceedings are neither civil nor criminal in nature but are sui generis, and are designed as the means to determine whether an attorney should be disciplined for misconduct, or whether an applicant's conduct should preclude the applicant from being admitted to the Bar, or from being reinstated to membership in the Bar.

Rule 1.4 Jurisdiction; Choice of Law.

(b) Choice of Law. In any exercise of the disciplinary authority of Oregon, the rules of professional conduct to be applied shall be as follows:

(1) For conduct in connection with a proceeding in a court before which an attorney has been admitted to practice, either generally or for purposes of that proceeding, the rules to be applied shall be the rules of the jurisdiction in which the court sits, unless the rules of the court provide otherwise; and

(2) For any other conduct,

(A) If the attorney is licensed to practice only in Oregon, the rules to be applied shall be the Oregon

Code of Professional Responsibility and the Bar Act; and

(B) If the attorney is licensed to practice in Oregon and another jurisdiction, the rules to be applied shall be the rules of the jurisdiction in which the attorney principally practices; provided, however, that if particular conduct clearly has its predominant effect in another jurisdiction in which the attorney is licensed to practice, the rules of that jurisdiction shall be applied to that conduct.

(Rule 1.4 amended by Order dated September 30, 1996.)

2.2 Investigators.

Disciplinary Counsel may, from time to time, appoint a suitable person, or suitable persons, to act as an investigator, or investigators, for the Bar with respect to complaints, allegations or instances of alleged misconduct by attorneys and matters of admission and reinstatement of attorneys. Such investigator or investigators shall perform such duties in relation thereto as may be required by Disciplinary Counsel.

Rule 2.3 Local Professional Responsibility Committees And State Professional Responsibility Board.

(a) LPRCs.

(1) Appointment. The Board shall create a local professional responsibility committee for each of the districts into which the counties of the state are grouped by the Board for convenient administrative purposes. The size of each LPRC shall be as the Board determined and each LPRC may have a member of the public who is not an attorney. Members of LPRCs shall be appointed by the Board for one-year terms, and may be reappointed. The Board shall appoint a chairperson for each committee.

(2) Duties of LPRCs.

(A) Disciplinary Counsel shall refer complaints or allegations of misconduct to an LPRC, as necessary and appropriate, by assigning each matter to a specific LPRC member, with notice to the LPRC chairperson.

(B) Members of the LPRC serve as fact-finders, investigating those complaints or allegations of misconduct referred to them by the SPRB or Disciplinary Counsel. Upon the conclusion of an investigation by an LPRC member, the member shall submit a written report to Disciplinary Counsel with specific findings. The LPRC member also shall provide a copy of such report to the chairperson of the LPRC of which he or she is a member.

(C) LPRC members are to complete each investigation and submit a written report within 90 days of the receipt of the referral from Disciplinary Counsel. The SPRB may grant one extension of time for a maximum of 60 days for good cause shown. Thereafter, if the investigation is not complete, the LPRC shall refer the matter back to Disciplinary Counsel for completion.

(D) An LPRC chairperson shall monitor the progress of the investigations assigned to the members of his or her committee, and may assign additional committee members to an investigation if the principal investigator requests it or if the LPRC chairperson deems it appropriate.

(E) An LPRC member may request that the LPRC chairperson convene a meeting of the LPRC or otherwise solicit input from other LPRC members in those matters justifying such committee deliberation. However, an LPRC member need not obtain the approval of the LPRC as a whole, or of the chairperson, before submitting his or her final investigative report to Disciplinary Counsel.

(F) LPRCs shall perform such other duties on behalf of the Bar as may be referred to such LPRCs by the SPRB or Disciplinary Counsel.

(3) Authority.

(A) LPRCs shall have the authority to take evidence, administer oaths or affirmations, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses, including the attorney being investigated, and the production of books, papers and documents pertaining to the matter under investigation.

(B) A witness in an investigation conducted by an LPRC who testifies falsely, fails to appear when subpoenaed, or fails to produce any books, papers or documents pursuant to subpoena, shall be subject to the same orders and penalties to which a witness before a circuit court is subject. LPRCs may enforce any subpoena issued pursuant to BR 2.3(a)(3)(A) by application to any circuit court. The circuit court shall determine what sanction to impose, if any, for noncompliance.

(C) A member of an LPRC may administer oaths or affirmations and issue any subpoena provided for in BR 2.3(a)(3)(A).

(b) SPRB.

(1) Appointment. The Board shall create for the state at large a state professional responsibility board and appoint its members.

(2) Duties of SPRB. The SPRB shall supervise the investigation of complaints, allegations, or instances of alleged misconduct on the part of attorneys and act on such matters as it may deem appropriate. A complaint by a client or other aggrieved person shall not be a prerequisite to the investigation of alleged misconduct by attorneys or the institution of disciplinary proceedings against any attorney.

(3) Authority.

(A) The SPRB shall have the authority to dismiss complaints, allegations or instances of alleged misconduct against attorneys, refer matters to Disciplinary Counsel or LPRCs for investigation, issue admonitions for misconduct, refer matters to the State Lawyers Assistance Committee, approve and supervise diversion agreements, institute disciplinary proceedings against any attorney, or take other action within the discretion granted to the SPRB by these rules.

(B) The SPRB shall have the authority to adopt rules dealing with the handling of its affairs, subject to approval by the Board.

(C) The SPRB shall have the authority to take evidence, administer oaths or affirmations, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses, including the attorney being investigated, and the production of books, papers and documents pertaining to the matter under investigation.

(D) A witness in an investigation conducted by the SPRB who testifies falsely, fails to appear when subpoenaed, or fails to produce any books, papers or documents pursuant to subpoena, shall be subject to the same orders and penalties to which a witness before a circuit court is subject. The SPRB may enforce any subpoena issued pursuant to BR 2.3(b)(3)(A) by application to any circuit court. The circuit court shall determine what sanction to impose, if any, for noncompliance.

Rule 2.4 Disciplinary Board.

(e) Duties of State Chairperson.

(1) The state chairperson shall coordinate and supervise the activities of the Disciplinary Board, including the monitoring of timely preparation and filing of trial panel opinions.

(2) The state chairperson shall not be required to, but may, serve on trial panels during his or her term of office.

(3) The state chairperson shall resolve all challenges to the qualifications of regional chairpersons under BR 2.4(g) and all challenges to the qualifications of trial panels appointed in contested reinstatement proceedings.

(4) Upon receipt of written notice from Disciplinary Counsel of service of a statement of objections, the state chairperson shall appoint a trial panel and trial panel chairperson from an appropriate region. The state chairperson shall give written notice to Disciplinary Counsel, Bar Counsel and the applicant of such appointments and a copy of the notice shall be filed with the Disciplinary Board Clerk.

(5) The state chairperson shall appoint a member of the Disciplinary Board to conduct pre-hearing conferences as provided in BR 4.6.

(6) The state chairperson may appoint Disciplinary Board members from any region to serve on trial panels or to conduct pre-hearing conferences as may be necessary to resolve the matters submitted to the Disciplinary Board for consideration.

(7) In matters involving final decisions of the Disciplinary Board under BR 10.1, the state chairperson shall review statements of costs and disbursements and objections thereto and shall fix the amount of actual and necessary costs and disbursements to be recovered by the prevailing party.

(f) Duties of Regional Chairperson.

(1) Upon receipt of written notice from Disciplinary Counsel of service of a formal complaint, the regional chairperson shall appoint a trial panel from the members of the regional panel and a chairperson thereof. The regional chairperson shall give written notice to Disciplinary Counsel, Bar Counsel and the accused of such appointments and a copy of the notice shall be filed with the Disciplinary Board Clerk.

(5) The regional chairperson shall rule on all questions of procedure and discovery that arise prior to the appointment of a trial panel and trial panel chairperson.

(h) Duties of Trial Panel Chairperson. The Disciplinary Board Clerk shall mail to the trial panel finally selected a copy of the formal complaint or statement of objections and, if one has been filed, the answer of the accused or applicant. Upon receipt of the pleadings from Disciplinary Board Clerk, the trial panel chairperson shall promptly establish the date and place of hearing pursuant to BR 5.4 and notify in writing the Disciplinary Board Clerk and the parties of the date and place of hearing. The trial panel chairperson shall rule on all pre-hearing matters, except for challenges under BR 2.4(e)(3). The trial panel chairperson shall convene the hearing, oversee the orderly conduct of the same, and timely file with the Disciplinary Board Clerk the written opinion of the trial panel.

(I) Duties of Trial Panel.

(1) Trial. It shall be the duty of a trial panel to which a disciplinary or contested reinstatement proceeding has been referred, promptly to try the issues. The trial panel shall pass on all questions of procedure and admission of evidence.

(a) Opinions.

The trial panel shall render a written opinion signed by the concurring members of the trial panel. A dissenting member shall note the dissent and may file a dissenting opinion attached to the majority opinion of the trial panel. The majority opinion shall include specific findings of fact, conclusions and a disposition. The trial panel chairperson shall file the original opinion with the Disciplinary Board Clerk, and serve copies on the parties and the State Court Administrator. It shall be filed within 28 days after the conclusion of the hearing, the settlement of the transcript if required under BR 5.3(e), or the filing of briefs if requested by the trial panel chairperson pursuant to BR 4.8, whichever is later.

(3) Record. The trial panel shall keep a record of all proceedings before it, including a transcript of the evidence and exhibits offered and received, and shall promptly file such record with the Disciplinary Board Clerk.

Rule 2.6 Investigations

(a) Review by Disciplinary Counsel.

(1) For disciplinary complaints referred to Disciplinary Counsel by the client assistance office pursuant to BR 2.5(a)(2), Disciplinary Counsel shall, within 14 days after receipt of the complaint, mail a copy of said complaint to the attorney, if the client assistance office has not already done so, and notify the attorney that he or she must respond to the complaint in writing to Disciplinary Counsel within 21 days of the date Disciplinary Counsel requests such a response. Disciplinary Counsel may grant an extension of time to respond for good cause shown upon the written request of the attorney. An attorney need not respond to the complaint if he or she provided a response to the client assistance office and is notified by Disciplinary Counsel that further information from the attorney is not necessary.

(2) If the attorney fails to respond within the time allowed, Disciplinary Counsel may refer the complaint to an appropriate LPRC within 14 days of the time set for the response. The procedure set forth in BR 2.3(a) shall be followed. Disciplinary Counsel shall inform the complainant and the attorney in writing of this action.

(b) Dismissal by Disciplinary Counsel. If, after considering a disciplinary complaint, the response of the attorney, and any additional information deemed relevant, Disciplinary Counsel determines that probable cause does not exist to believe misconduct has occurred, the complaint shall be dismissed. The complainant and the attorney shall be notified in writing by Disciplinary Counsel of the dismissal. A complainant may contest in writing the action taken by Disciplinary Counsel in dismissing his or her complaint, in which case Disciplinary Counsel shall submit a report on the complaint to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting. The SPRB shall thereafter take such action as it deems appropriate on such complaint.

C) Review by SPRB.

(1) If Disciplinary Counsel determines that misconduct may be involved, the complaint shall be referred by Disciplinary Counsel to an appropriate LPRC for further investigation, or referred by Disciplinary Counsel to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting. If the complaint is referred to an LPRC by Disciplinary Counsel, the procedure specified in BR 2.3(a) shall be followed. Otherwise, the SPRB shall evaluate the complaint based on the report of Disciplinary Counsel to determine whether probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred. The SPRB shall either dismiss the complaint, refer it to an LPRC, admonish the attorney, authorize Disciplinary Counsel to negotiate and enter into a diversion agreement pursuant to BR 2. 10, approve the filing of a formal complaint by the Bar against the attorney, or take action within the discretion granted to the SPRB by these rules.

(A) If the SPRB determines that probable cause does not exist to believe misconduct has occurred, the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant and the attorney shall be notified of the dismissal in writing by Disciplinary Counsel.

(B) If the SPRB determines that the attorney should be admonished, such procedure shall be initiated within 14 days of the SPRB's meeting. If an attorney refuses to accept the admonition within the time specified by Disciplinary Counsel, a formal complaint shall be filed by the Bar against the attorney. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney in writing of this action.

C) If the SPRB determines that the complaint should be investigated further, Disciplinary Counsel shall conduct the investigation or submit the complaint to the appropriate LPRC within 14 days of the SPRB's meeting. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney in writing of this action.

(d) Review of LPRC Reports by SPRB.

(1) Disciplinary Counsel shall submit an LPRC's report to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting. The SPRB shall evaluate the complaint based on the LPRC's report and the report of Disciplinary Counsel to determine whether probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred. The SPRB shall either dismiss the complaint, have it investigated further, admonish the attorney, authorize Disciplinary Counsel to negotiate and enter into a diversion agreement pursuant to BR 2. 10, approve the filing of a formal complaint against the attorney, or take action within the discretion granted to the SPRB by these rules.

(A) If the SPRB determines that probable cause does not exist to believe misconduct has occurred, the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant and the attorney shall be notified of the dismissal in writing by Disciplinary Counsel.

(B) If the SPRB determines that the attorney should be admonished, such action shall be initiated within the time set forth in BR 2.6(c)(1)(B). If an attorney refuses to accept the admonition within the time specified by Disciplinary Counsel, a formal complaint shall be filed by the Bar against the attorney. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney in writing of this action.

C) If the SPRB determines that further investigation is needed, Disciplinary Counsel shall conduct the investigation or, within 14 days of the SPRB's meeting, refer the matter to the appropriate LPRC member who shall conduct a further investigation in accordance with BR 2.3(a). The further investigation by an LPRC shall be completed and a report shall be filed with Disciplinary Counsel within 30 days after the date of the referral. Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the complainant and the attorney in writing of this action. The report of the further investigation shall be submitted to the SPRB at a scheduled meeting, at which the SPRB shall take action in accordance with BR 2.6(d)(1).

(e) Reconsideration; Discretion to Rescind.

(1) A decision by the SPRB to dismiss a complaint or allegation of misconduct against an attorney shall not preclude reconsideration or further proceedings on such complaint or allegation if evidence not available or submitted at the time of such dismissal justifies, in the judgment of not less than a majority of SPRB, such reconsideration or further proceedings.

(2) A decision by the SPRB to file a formal complaint against an attorney for misconduct may be rescinded by the SPRB only when, to the satisfaction of a majority of the entire SPRB, good cause exists. Good cause is:

(A) new evidence which would have clearly affected the SPRB's decision to file a formal complaint; or

(B) legal authority, not known to the SPRB at the time of its last consideration of the matter, which establishes that the SPRB's decision to file a formal complaint was incorrect.

(f) Approval of Charges.

(1) If the SPRB determines that a formal complaint should be filed against an attorney, or if an attorney rejects an admonition offered by the SPRB, Disciplinary Counsel may appoint Bar Counsel. The attorney and the complainant shall be notified in writing by Disciplinary Counsel of such action.

(2) Notwithstanding a determination by the SPRB that probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred, the SPRB shall have the discretion to direct that no further action on a complaint or allegation of misconduct be taken by the Bar if one or more of the following circumstances exist: the attorney is no longer an active member of the Bar or is not engaged in the practice of law, and is required under BR 8.1 to demonstrate good moral character and general fitness to practice law before resuming active membership status or the practice of law in Oregon; other disciplinary proceedings are pending that are likely to result in the attorney's disbarment; other disciplinary charges are authorized or pending and the anticipated sanction should the Bar prevail on those charges, is not likely to be affected by a guilty finding in the new matter or on an additional charge; or formal disciplinary proceedings are impractical in light of the circumstances or the likely outcome of the proceedings. An exercise of discretion under this rule to take no further action on complaint or allegation of misconduct shall not preclude further consideration or proceedings by the SPRB on such complaint or allegation in the future.

(3) Notwithstanding a determination by the SPRB that probable cause exists to believe misconduct has occurred, the SPRB shall have the discretion to dismiss a complaint or allegation of misconduct if the SPRB, considering the facts and circumstances as a whole, determines that dismissal would further the interests of justice and would not be harmful to the interests of clients or the public. Factors the SPRB may take into account in exercising its discretion under this rule include, but are not limited to: the attorney's mental state; whether the misconduct is an isolated event or part of a pattern of misconduct; the potential or actual injury caused by the attorney's misconduct; whether the attorney full cooperated in the investigation of the misconduct; and whether the attorney previously was admonished or disciplined for misconduct. Misconduct that adversely reflects on the attorney's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness to practice law shall not be subject to dismissal under this rule.

Title 3 -- Special Proceedings

Rule 3.4 Conviction Of Attorneys.

(a) Referral of Convictions to Court. Disciplinary Counsel, after reporting on the matter to the SPRB, shall promptly notify the court after receiving notice that an attorney has been convicted in any jurisdiction of an offense that is a misdemeanor which may involve moral turpitude or is a felony under the laws of this state, or is punishable by death or imprisonment under the laws of the United States. Disciplinary Counsel shall file a copy of the documents which show the conviction and a statement of the SPRB's recommendation regarding the imposition of a suspension with the court, with written notice to the attorney. A "conviction" for the purposes of this rule shall be considered to have occurred upon entry of a plea of guilty or no contest or upon entry of a finding or verdict of guilty.

(d) Suspension. Upon review of the documents showing the conviction and the material filed by the attorney and the Bar, the court may suspend the attorney from the practice of law until further order of the court. An attorney suspended from practice under this rule shall comply with the requirements of BR 6.3(a) and (b).

(e) Hearing. Whether or not the court suspends the attorney, the court may refer the matter to the Disciplinary Board for the scheduling of a hearing before a trial panel. The same rules as apply in a disciplinary proceeding shall apply in a conviction proceeding.

(f) Independent Charges; Consolidated Proceedings. The SPRB may cause disciplinary charges to be filed against the attorney independent of the fact of the attorney's conviction. In such case those charges shall be consolidated for hearing with the conviction matter, if the conviction matter has been referred to the Disciplinary Board by the court.

(g) Review by Court. The trial panel's decision shall be subject to review by the court as is authorized in Title 10 of these rules.

(h) Reinstatement Rules Apply. The rules on reinstatement shall apply to attorneys suspended or disbarred pursuant to the procedure set forth in BR 3.4(e), (f) and (g).

Reversal of the attorney's conviction on appeal OSB Rules of Procedure (Revised 1/04) 24 or the granting of a new trial does not require the termination of any disciplinary proceeding based upon the same facts which gave rise to the conviction.
